"A Long Way From Home" by: Tom Brokaw

In A Long Way From Home, Tom Brokaw describes his childhood and youth in South Dakota, and the people and places in the American heartland of the 1940's and 1950's that continue to shape his life today. As he reflects on the American experience as he lived and observed it during the central decades of the 20th century. He writes of his parents lives during the Great Depression, his boyhood and his early years in the broadcasting business. Brokaw also explores what brought him and so many Americans to lead lives a long way from home, yet be forever affected by it.
