07. SENIOR NEWS:

Please remember, before you leave on your Senior trip, all detention hours must be served, all fees paid, and your resume and cover letter must be turned in to Mrs. Ourada. Oh yes, you must also be passing all of your classes. And . . . have your Senior photo to Mrs. Larson for the yearbook.

08. New books in the Media Center. Check them out.

Book~ Playing The Black Piano Author~ Bill Holm
This book of poetry reflects Holm's time in Iceland (his ancestral home), his ongoing love affair with music, a friend's death from AIDS, and his bold reactions to the world around him. Moving from Oregon to the deserts around Tucson, from the endless marketing of long-distance telephone service to the experience of undergoing an MRI, the poems speak of this man's full embrace of the world and his passion for living well.

Polka band Friday at 7:45.

11. Spring Week is Mar. 30-Apr. 4.

Fri., 4/3 - Boy/Girl switch day.

4th & 5th p. - Student Council members, with teacher permission, may be dismissed to decorate for dance.

Sat., 4/4 - Spring Dance at HS auditorium. Grand march at 8:00, dance following Grand March until 11:00. $5/person, $10/couple. All students are welcome to come to the dance. What else do you have to do?

Spring week candidates, attendants, and ushers: We are planning on you walking through the grand march on Saturday night with your partner. If this is not possible, please let Karen or Mrs. Dibble know ASAP. If you are just doing the grand march and not staying for the dance, then you do not need to pay. If you are planning to stay at the dance for any length of time, you will need to pay $5 per person to Karen before Saturday. Please be to the auditorium by 7:45 on Saturday evening.

There will be a bus from Walnut Grove to Westbrook to bring students to the dance Saturday night. The bus will leave the Walnut Grove school at 7:30 pm, so students will be here in time for the grand march. The bus will leave Westbrook at 11 pm to return to Walnut.

12. Juniors: MCA II Math testing begins the third week of April. You must pass this test in order to graduate. If you are interested in some study sessions, report to the 2nd floor of the tech campus on the following days after school. The sessions will start at 3:05 and last until 3:45 or 4:00.

STAFF

01. Weekly Progress Reports are due on Thursday. They are printed by 7:45 AM on Friday.

02. Please do not use your regular keys to enter the Fitness Center door (the door on the ramp). That north door is for electronic fitness center cards only. When you use a regular key, it throws the door system out of whack. Use one of the other doors to enter the Tech Campus building.

03. K-6 Teachers: Please remember to turn in claims for your integration planning days. $100 per day with a max of $200. Please come talk to me if you have already turned in a claim. There may have been some confusion earlier this year on the rate. Thanks Jane

04. Attend a 30 minute training session to learn how to use the on-line student accounts system: for advisors who manage the money. Friday, April 3 at 3:05 in Hannan's room.

05. Our school nurse, Sue Huls, will be in on Friday.

06. Mrs. Enstad invites you to take a look at the discarded library books in the workroom. There is something there for everyone. You have first pick...Wednesday of next week the students will have an opportunity to take the remainder of them. The good news is that there will be many more before the end of the year.

07. HS staff - In your mailboxes you will find a list of spring sports participants. This should help you with early dismissals.
