07. Check out what's new at the WWG Media Center. "In My Hands" (Memories Of A Holocaust Rescuer) by: Irene Gut Opdyke

Irene Gut was just seventeen when the war began: a student nurse, a Polish patriot, a good Catholic girl. As the war progressed, the soldiers of two countries stripped her of all she loved-her family, her home, her innocence.

And so she began to fight back. When forced to work in a German officers' dining hall, Irene eavesdropped on the Nazis' plans and passed on information to Jews in the ghetto.

This powerless young woman was determined to deliver her friends from evil. It was as simple and as impossible as that.
