"Lock and Key" by: Sarah Dessen (fiction

"Ruby, where is your mother?" With that question from the social worker, Ruby knows the game is up. She's been living alone in the old yellow house, waiting out the months until she turns eighteen and can finally move out on her own legally. It certainly wasn't her plan to be reunited with Cora, the sister who left ten years before and brought to live with Cora and her wealthy entrepreneur husband. Suddenly her life is transformed.....

This novel by Dressen is funny, perceptive and touching. Check it out today at your school library!
