How do you make a snake cry?

Take away his rattle!

The Fornberg family has placed their son Tony's vehicle here to remind us all to make wise decisions and to take care of each other. It takes great strength to share this very hard part of life. As the end of the school year rapidly approaches, we hope that in the excitement and celebration, you use common sense and be strong when your friends need you.
