Maurice and Hilda Mitchell Agriculture Career Scholarship

Maurice and Hilda Mitchell were long time Westbrook residents who farmed and raised cattle south of Westbrook. They operated a true ranch and enjoyed entertaining and helping others to appreciate cattle and the beauty of country living. Maurice and Hilda were very involved in their community, their church, and the area cattle organizations. Hundreds, if not thousands of people have been on the ranch and witnessed a classy couple that loved the land, the cattle and the people around them. Maurice and Hilda wanted nothing more than to see young people enjoy rural living and to be a part of a vibrant small town community.
